A Settlement of approximately $6.6 million has been reached in a class action lawsuit against the San Diego Unified Port District (the “Port”) claiming that the Port’s Resolution 2018-065 and Ordinance 2030, which required rental car companies to collect from their customers and remit to the Port a $3.50 fee (the “Fee”) for each transaction on Port tidelands, was an illegal and unconstitutional tax. The Port denies the claims in this lawsuit and denies that individual consumers who rented vehicles have a claim against the Port. Both parties have agreed to settle the lawsuit.

Who is included? Rental car companies have identified you as having paid the Fee. The Settlement Class includes all persons who rented vehicles from rental car companies, with the rentals originating at locations in San Diego, California on Port tidelands, from the period of May 10, 2018 to July 24, 2020, and who were assessed a $3.50 fee by the rental car companies that was then remitted to the Port.

What does the Settlement provide? The Port will pay approximately $6.6 million to create a Settlement Fund from which all Cash Awards and Settlement Costs will be paid. All Settlement Class Members who submit a valid Claim Form will be eligible to receive a Cash Award determined by the number of rentals claimed by the Settlement Class Member multiplied by $3.50. If the dollar value of all valid claims exceeds the Net Settlement Fund, the Cash Awards will be reduced pro rata. Claims for more than 6 rentals (for more than $21) must be made under penalty of perjury, and claims for more than 20 rentals (for more than $70) must include evidence in support of the claim. Visit the website for additional details.

How to get benefits. Using your Claim ID number on the front of this Notice, you can file your claim online at www.RentalCarFeeSettlement.com. The deadline to file a claim online is 11:59 p.m. PST on October 20, 2020. You may also complete and return the tear-off postcard Claim Form and file via regular mail. Your Claim Form must be postmarked on or before October 20, 2020.

Your other options. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself by October 20, 2020. If you do not exclude yourself, you will release your claims against any parties that are released under the terms of the Settlement Agreement. You may object to the Settlement by October 20, 2020. The Detailed Notice available on the website explains how to exclude yourself or object. The Court will hold a Hearing on November 13, 2020, to consider whether to approve the Settlement, up to 20% of the value of the Settlement for attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement of reasonable, actual, out-of-pocket expenses, a Service Award of up to $5,000 for the Class Representative, as well as any objections. You may appear at the hearing, either yourself or through an attorney hired by you, but you don’t have to. For more information, call or visit the website.
